

Media Release

TT Services has been awarded the Best Visa Facilitation Company at the India Travel Awards - West 2015. The annual awards is organised by DDP Publications, the company that produces popular magazines such as Trav Talk, South-Asia leading travel trade magazine (www.travtalkindia.com).

The award was given away at a glittering ceremony in Goa, India. The annual awards ceremony is organised to create an all-India platform to recognise those behind the success of the travel and tourism industry and to recognise their achievements. The awards were presented to achievers from different segments of the industry which included aviation, domestic and international tourism boards, hotels and resorts, visa service providers, travel agents, tour operators and technology. The India Travel Awards is based on a unique system of jury judgment and online voting.

This is the first time TT Services has won an award. On receiving the award, Debbie Brockbank, Managing Director, TT Services said, "this award is a testament of the excellent contribution of all employees of TT Services in providing the best services to our clients - be it governments, corporates or individual visa applicants. We will continue to improve the quality of our services as more clients are choosing to partner TTS."

Speaking at the event, Sanjeet, convenor of India Travel Awards said, "this is truly a recognition of the best in the industry and how the company contributes to the improvement of the travel and tourism industry on the whole."

For TT Services, it has indeed been a year of good performance, retaining all the existing client partnerships, which had come up for renewal. Many associated new services for its existing clients such as the Pop-Up VACs for INZ have been a real success and have been appreciated by the governments as well.
